By the Senate

March 24th 1836.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We return you herewith the bill, entitled, an act supplementary to an act for the repairs and preservation of the national road, within the State of Maryland, in order that you may consider the report of the committee of conference thereon.

By order,

JOS. H. NICHOLSON, Clerk.

Which was read.

Mr. Pratt, from the joint committee, delivered the following report;

The committee on the part of the house, appointed to confer with a committee on the part of the senate on the subject of the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the amendments proposed by the House of Delegates, to the bill entitled, an act supplementary to an act for the repair and preservation of the national road within the State of Maryland, report:

That the conferees have performed the duty assigned to them, and after a full and free conference, they have agreed to recommend that the house do recede from said amendments, and that the bill be returned to the Senate for engrossment.

THO. G. PRATT, chairman of the committee on the part of the house.

Which was read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Berry,
